

OSH Rights Issue No 17, September 2007

Thursday, 11 October 2007

Annual meeting of ANROAV Network members held at Hong Kong on 29-31 August, 2007. Annual meeting is a regular feature now. Over a period of time, the network has strengthened and developed. The quality of presentations has kept on improving. The range of issues being discussed is widening. Activists come from different backgrounds. Each Asian country has different laws and different level of economical development. Cultures and languages are different. Political systems and level of freedom of expression for workers are different.

Please download the issue here >>>